'Grow and Learn together in the presence of God'

Wow, what a short but busy half term full of wonderful activities, achievements, and excitement! The Year 2 children have settled brilliantly into their new routine and temporary classrooms. Year 1 have thoroughly enjoyed their Fabulous Fairytales Topic and are looking forward to their trip to Tamworth Castle next half term. Reception have loved watching their caterpillars grow and enjoyed a fantastic visit to the copse, albeit rather soggy, where they made bug hotels, engaged in natural art, searched for minibeasts and not forgetting our youngest learners, who have completed amazing work on the life cycle of a frog, clearly articulating their knowledge with adults. Well done, everyone!

We hope you have a wonderful half term break and look forward to welcoming the children back into school and nursery on Tuesday 3rd June.
