Diwali Day

It was lovely to see the children dressed in beautiful bright colours for Diwali this week! We had lots of children wearing their traditional dress which was lovely to see! The children enjoyed learning Diwali and how families in our community celebrate .

Remembrance

Every class contributed our our beautiful display of remembrance poppies which are now proudly displayed outside the church. Thank you to Gabriella, Myles, Mila and Jagvir for helping to display them.

Jonah, Edward and Tommy took part in the remembrance service at church as part of beavers and cubs. I am sure you will agree, they look very smart! Well done boys!

The Santa Dash is Back!

Beacon for the blind have kindly provided us with a discount code again this year. It would be great to have as many of you there as possible! It is a great way to start your Christmas festivities. The 5K in West Park can be run, walked, jogged, skipped, danced! You can even enter your four legged friends!!

Last year we had 70 entries from Christ Church. This included parents, aunties, cousins siblings as well as children who attend our school. Our contribution made last years event the largest in it's history! All entries using the code GREEN upon entry will receive 10% discount and a green hat for the day to wear alongside the Santa suit. Children receive a green hat.

Let's see how big we can make 'Team GREEN' this year!!
