Thursday 6th February 2020

Dear Parents,

On Friday 28th February we will be holding our first 'multi-cultural day'. The theme will be Kenya, in order to celebrate our global link with St John's Buko RC. We hope this day will build the children's understand of Christianity as a worldwide faith. The children will take part in a range of activities to bring the Kenyan culture to life.

As this is a celebration, the children may come to school dressed in the Kenyan colours (red, green, black and white) or highly patterned, colourful clothing.

As part of the day will involve food tasting, please return the slip below.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J Nash
